

Chrissie Myles

“A powerhouse.” — Billy Bragg

BIO

Chrissie Myles is a dynamic vocalist whose career spans international tours, high-profile recordings and collaborations with acclaimed artists — most notably touring and recording with multi-platinum band Bastille.

Her performances include the Pyramid Stage at Glastonbury, Hampton Court Palace Festival, RockWerchter, Sziget, Swanage Jazz Festival, Twinwood, The Royal Opera and many prestigious corporate and cultural events. She is versatile across Pop, Classical, Jazz, Indie, Reggae, Funk and Soul.

Alongside touring and studio dates, Chrissie also works as a function musician and collaborates with other musicians and bandleaders — happy to step into an existing set-up or help build one.

SELECTED CREDITS

2026 Co Lee headline show — Budapest Park, Hungary; Rationale — headline show; Acantha Lang — backing vocals, live at The Boisdale, Canary Wharf; 100 Years of Sir David Attenborough on Planet Earth

2025 Sziget Festival, Hungary (with Co Lee) — Vocal Director

2023 JF Abraham (Public Service Broadcasting) — 'A Different Kind of Light' album, backing vocals on most tracks

2019 Bastille — 'Another Place' feat. The Chamber Orchestra of London (backing vocals); Glastonbury Pyramid Stage (with Bastille, Lewis Capaldi, Rationale); The Graham Norton Show; BBC Radio 1 Maida Vale Sessions with Bastille; Abbey Road Studios with Bastille; RockWerchter, Reading & Leeds

2012 Mystery Jets — Live at the Royal Festival Hall album (clean soprano on 'Sister Everett')

SERVICES

Lead & backing vocals · Live, touring & function work · Studio & session recording · Vocal direction

BOOKINGS

chrissie.mylab@gmail.com · chrissiemyes.com

Instagram @milliecent · TikTok @chrissievoxxx